

MEXICO WARNED OUTRAGES MUST CEASE

WILSON'S OFFER TO TALK OVER PACT ACCEPTED BY COMMITTEE

Replying to Request of Senator Lodge for Appointment, President Sets Tuesday Morning at 10 O'clock as Time for Hearing.

ASKS FULL PUBLICITY BE GIVEN CONFERENCE

Committee Also Reverses Decision to Speed Up Action on Treaty and Requests Appearance of Five Advisers Who Resigned During Negotiations.

By The Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—President Wilson, replying to a request from Senator Lodge, set Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock as the time for a conference with the Senate committee on the proposed peace treaty with Mexico.

The president's offer to talk over the peace treaty with the Senate committee was received with surprise and satisfaction by the committee members.

The committee also reversed its decision to speed up action on the treaty and requested the appearance of five advisers who had resigned during the negotiations.

President Wilson's offer to talk over the peace treaty with the Senate committee was received with surprise and satisfaction by the committee members.

The committee also reversed its decision to speed up action on the treaty and requested the appearance of five advisers who had resigned during the negotiations.

President Wilson's offer to talk over the peace treaty with the Senate committee was received with surprise and satisfaction by the committee members.

The committee also reversed its decision to speed up action on the treaty and requested the appearance of five advisers who had resigned during the negotiations.

President Wilson's offer to talk over the peace treaty with the Senate committee was received with surprise and satisfaction by the committee members.

The committee also reversed its decision to speed up action on the treaty and requested the appearance of five advisers who had resigned during the negotiations.

President Wilson's offer to talk over the peace treaty with the Senate committee was received with surprise and satisfaction by the committee members.

The committee also reversed its decision to speed up action on the treaty and requested the appearance of five advisers who had resigned during the negotiations.

FOOD STORES SEIZED IN 3 CITIES

Indications of Punch Behind Government's Campaign Against High Costs Accumulate; Palmer Plans to Punish All Profiteers.

By The Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—Indications of a "punch" behind the government's campaign against high costs are accumulating, according to a report from the Justice department.

The Justice department is planning to punish all profiteers, according to a report from the Justice department.

The Justice department is planning to punish all profiteers, according to a report from the Justice department.

The Justice department is planning to punish all profiteers, according to a report from the Justice department.

The Justice department is planning to punish all profiteers, according to a report from the Justice department.

The Justice department is planning to punish all profiteers, according to a report from the Justice department.

The Justice department is planning to punish all profiteers, according to a report from the Justice department.

The Justice department is planning to punish all profiteers, according to a report from the Justice department.

The Justice department is planning to punish all profiteers, according to a report from the Justice department.

The Justice department is planning to punish all profiteers, according to a report from the Justice department.

The Justice department is planning to punish all profiteers, according to a report from the Justice department.

The Justice department is planning to punish all profiteers, according to a report from the Justice department.

The Justice department is planning to punish all profiteers, according to a report from the Justice department.

FORD AWARDED DAMAGES OF SIX CENTS AGAINST DAILY TRIBUNE

Jury in Million-Dollar Libel Suit Finds for Plaintiff After Having Case Under Advisement for More Than Ten Hours.

BOTH SIDES CLAIM VICTORY IN VERDICT

Lucking Declares Client Has Been Vindicated and His Attitude as an American Citizen Established, and That His Friends are Entirely Satisfied.

By The Associated Press. ST. LOUIS, Aug. 14.—A jury tonight awarded Henry Ford six cents damages against the Daily Tribune in a million-dollar libel suit.

The jury found for the plaintiff, Henry Ford, and awarded him six cents in damages.

The jury found for the plaintiff, Henry Ford, and awarded him six cents in damages.

The jury found for the plaintiff, Henry Ford, and awarded him six cents in damages.

The jury found for the plaintiff, Henry Ford, and awarded him six cents in damages.

The jury found for the plaintiff, Henry Ford, and awarded him six cents in damages.

The jury found for the plaintiff, Henry Ford, and awarded him six cents in damages.

The jury found for the plaintiff, Henry Ford, and awarded him six cents in damages.

The jury found for the plaintiff, Henry Ford, and awarded him six cents in damages.

The jury found for the plaintiff, Henry Ford, and awarded him six cents in damages.

The jury found for the plaintiff, Henry Ford, and awarded him six cents in damages.

Visiting Canada

PRINCE OF WALES

SHOPMEN VOTE TO RETURN TO WORK SATURDAY

Strike Definitely Called Off at Meeting Held in Chicago.

By The Associated Press. CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—Shopmen voted tonight to return to work on Saturday, ending a strike that had lasted for several days.

The vote was taken at a meeting held in Chicago, and the result was a decisive one in favor of returning to work.

The vote was taken at a meeting held in Chicago, and the result was a decisive one in favor of returning to work.

The vote was taken at a meeting held in Chicago, and the result was a decisive one in favor of returning to work.

The vote was taken at a meeting held in Chicago, and the result was a decisive one in favor of returning to work.

The vote was taken at a meeting held in Chicago, and the result was a decisive one in favor of returning to work.

The vote was taken at a meeting held in Chicago, and the result was a decisive one in favor of returning to work.

The vote was taken at a meeting held in Chicago, and the result was a decisive one in favor of returning to work.

Carranza Told U.S. May Be Forced to Adopt Radical Change in Mexican Policy

Washington Note Demanding That Murders of Americans Stop Lacks Only Diplomatic Technicalities of Ultimatum.

Language Employed Strongest Employed by Washington Since Exchanges Preceding Occupation of Vera Cruz.

By The Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The first definite move toward the long expected change in policy in dealing with Mexico was disclosed today.

The government announced its action by publishing an exchange of notes with Mexico City and prefacing its official statement with the explanation that the diplomatic representations referred to had been taken "in view of the long series of murders and outrages of American citizens in Mexico."

The government announced its action by publishing an exchange of notes with Mexico City and prefacing its official statement with the explanation that the diplomatic representations referred to had been taken "in view of the long series of murders and outrages of American citizens in Mexico."

The government announced its action by publishing an exchange of notes with Mexico City and prefacing its official statement with the explanation that the diplomatic representations referred to had been taken "in view of the long series of murders and outrages of American citizens in Mexico."

The government announced its action by publishing an exchange of notes with Mexico City and prefacing its official statement with the explanation that the diplomatic representations referred to had been taken "in view of the long series of murders and outrages of American citizens in Mexico."

The government announced its action by publishing an exchange of notes with Mexico City and prefacing its official statement with the explanation that the diplomatic representations referred to had been taken "in view of the long series of murders and outrages of American citizens in Mexico."

The government announced its action by publishing an exchange of notes with Mexico City and prefacing its official statement with the explanation that the diplomatic representations referred to had been taken "in view of the long series of murders and outrages of American citizens in Mexico."

The government announced its action by publishing an exchange of notes with Mexico City and prefacing its official statement with the explanation that the diplomatic representations referred to had been taken "in view of the long series of murders and outrages of American citizens in Mexico."

The government announced its action by publishing an exchange of notes with Mexico City and prefacing its official statement with the explanation that the diplomatic representations referred to had been taken "in view of the long series of murders and outrages of American citizens in Mexico."

The government announced its action by publishing an exchange of notes with Mexico City and prefacing its official statement with the explanation that the diplomatic representations referred to had been taken "in view of the long series of murders and outrages of American citizens in Mexico."

The government announced its action by publishing an exchange of notes with Mexico City and prefacing its official statement with the explanation that the diplomatic representations referred to had been taken "in view of the long series of murders and outrages of American citizens in Mexico."

The government announced its action by publishing an exchange of notes with Mexico City and prefacing its official statement with the explanation that the diplomatic representations referred to had been taken "in view of the long series of murders and outrages of American citizens in Mexico."

FOLLOWERS OF FERGUSON AND BAILEY DESERT OLD PARTY TIES

One Faction, Headed by Former Governor, Leaves Democratic Ranks and Forms "American Party;" National Organization Proposed.

Adherents of Former Senator Adopt Set of Twelve Principles at Separate Meetings, Conforming Closely to Platform Announced by Ferguson.

By The Associated Press. FORT WORTH, Texas, Aug. 14.—Two factions of Texas Democrats, dissatisfied with the present party organization, met here today and determined to form a new party to represent a certain "the principles of state and federal government affairs."

The new party, headed by former Governor Bailey, is known as the "American Party," and it is proposed to make national in scope before the next general election.

The new party, headed by former Governor Bailey, is known as the "American Party," and it is proposed to make national in scope before the next general election.

The new party, headed by former Governor Bailey, is known as the "American Party," and it is proposed to make national in scope before the next general election.

The new party, headed by former Governor Bailey, is known as the "American Party," and it is proposed to make national in scope before the next general election.

The new party, headed by former Governor Bailey, is known as the "American Party," and it is proposed to make national in scope before the next general election.

The new party, headed by former Governor Bailey, is known as the "American Party," and it is proposed to make national in scope before the next general election.

The new party, headed by former Governor Bailey, is known as the "American Party," and it is proposed to make national in scope before the next general election.

The new party, headed by former Governor Bailey, is known as the "American Party," and it is proposed to make national in scope before the next general election.

The new party, headed by former Governor Bailey, is known as the "American Party," and it is proposed to make national in scope before the next general election.

The new party, headed by former Governor Bailey, is known as the "American Party," and it is proposed to make national in scope before the next general election.

The new party, headed by former Governor Bailey, is known as the "American Party," and it is proposed to make national in scope before the next general election.

THE WEATHER

For Corpus Christi and Vicinity. Friday, Aug. 15, to be clear with southerly winds. Saturday, Aug. 16, to be clear with southerly winds. Sunday, Aug. 17, to be clear with southerly winds.

A LINE O' CHEER EACH DAY O' THE YEAR

By John Kendrick Bangs.

PEARLS

There is a pearl in each eye. There is a pearl in each ear. There is a pearl in each heart. There is a pearl in each soul.

Missing Aviators Located in Mexico

By The Associated Press. ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 14.—A search party located today the missing aviators who had been reported missing since they were last seen in Mexico.

The search party, which was sent by the Mexican government, found the aviators in a remote part of Mexico.

The search party, which was sent by the Mexican government, found the aviators in a remote part of Mexico.

The search party, which was sent by the Mexican government, found the aviators in a remote part of Mexico.

The search party, which was sent by the Mexican government, found the aviators in a remote part of Mexico.

Outlines Plan to Permit Labor to Share Rail Profits

By The Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—A plan to permit labor to share rail profits was outlined today by the Interstate Commerce commission.

The plan, which was proposed by the commission, would allow labor to share in the profits of the railroads.

The plan, which was proposed by the commission, would allow labor to share in the profits of the railroads.

The plan, which was proposed by the commission, would allow labor to share in the profits of the railroads.

Officers Indorse Proposed Plan for Military Training

By The Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The officers of the United States military forces have indorsed a proposed plan for military training.

The plan, which was proposed by the War department, would provide for the training of military officers.

The plan, which was proposed by the War department, would provide for the training of military officers.

The plan, which was proposed by the War department, would provide for the training of military officers.

Eleven Killed in Trolley Car Crash

By The Associated Press. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Aug. 14.—Eleven people were killed today in a trolley car crash in Philadelphia.

The crash occurred when a trolley car derailed and fell into a river.

The crash occurred when a trolley car derailed and fell into a river.

The crash occurred when a trolley car derailed and fell into a river.

THREE CHILDREN KILLED

By The Associated Press. BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 14.—Three children were killed today in a fire in Baltimore.